A Philadelphia oyster dealer has a horse that eats oysters on the half shell with remarkable relish.

The fact that a package of money, containing nearly $30,000, has been missing from the Adams Express, Company's office in Philadelphia for ten days past, shows how easily the very best managed concerns may be victimized.

Lightning struck in the middle of a potato patch at Plattsville, Ulster Co., during a recent thunder storm, and scorched the vines in a circle of fifteen feet. Directly in the center of the circle the tubers were uncovered, and many of them were baked.

W. W. Kennoch, Chief of the Michigan District Secret Service, took to Detroit Aug. 30th, a counterfeit named William Windsor, of Vermont, one of the most desperate shovers of the queer in the country. He was captured in a barn three miles south-west of Lansing.

Where the Lafin & Rand Powder Works stood is a hole in the clay twenty-five feet deep. Over the prairie for half a mile are scattered bits of stone and shivers from the roof timbers. A block of stone weighing nearly 150 pounds went through the wall of the Grand Trunk round house about a mile north, and another dropped through the roof, smashing in the cab of an engine. The Chicago and Alton round house, nearly a mile north-east, was riddled with fragments of stone and brick and every window smashed to pieces.

A flash of lightning, Aug. 29th, set fire to 100,000 pounds of powder in Lafin & Rand's magazine in Chicago. The house of John Guhl, a driver for the Oriental Powder Company, was flattened out upon the ground. Guhl and his wife were fatally injured, and Carrie E. Urnworth, their servant, was instantly killed. The residence of Mrs. Devine was demolished, and Mrs. Devine had her leg broken and her body bruised. A farmer, whose name could not be learned, was driving past the building when the explosion occurred. His skull was fractured and his back badly lacerated by blocks of stone. He died a few hours later. The horse he was driving was instantly killed and the wagon smashed into kindling wood. The whole side of Justice Michael Tearney's house was ripped off and the roof caved in.

Paris, Aug. 30.—There was an exciting incident a few days ago in a traveling menagerie at the outer boulevards fair. A beast tamer named Graconette was in the lion's cage when one of the lions, which had been in a surly humor all morning, sprang upon him, and burying its claws in his thighs bore him to the ground. The spectators were horror-stricken, but Graconette in falling managed to keep his eyes fixed on those of the beast. In this way the eyes of beast and man glaring at each other he managed to regain his feet and slowly backed out of the cage, holding his whip high in the air in a menacing attitude. Just as he reached the door the blood spurted in a stream through his thighs, and the animal, with a fierce growl, sprang toward him. With a sudden movement, however, he clung to the grating, striking the animal on the nose, and as it retired to a corner with a look of baffled savagery upon its face, the unfortunate trainer fell in a dead faint.

Anthracite Coal will be increased in price this winter about 15 per cent.

The Earth Quake.

The earth quake on Tuesday night gave this country a general shaking up. It commenced in the Carolinas and all of the country east of the Mississippi River was more or less affected. At Charleston, South Carolina much damage was done. The shock was felt at Mansfield, Dayton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, in Indiana, St. Louis, and at Pittsburgh and several other points people were made sick and others fainted. In several of the large cities hotel guests rushed out of the buildings, and printers from the printing offices, meetings and theatres were broken up, and Richmond, Va., a panic was created. The earth is not always a safe place to be either.

Destructive earth quakes visited parts of Italy last week, and some of the volcanoes were angry during last week.

For Instant Use

As a reliable remedy, in cases of Croup, Whooping Cough, or sudden Colds, and for the prompt relief and cure of throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes: "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy for home use. I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." John H. Stoddard, Petersburg, Va., writes: "I have never found a medicine equal to

for the prompt relief of throat and lung diseases peculiar to children. I consider it an absolute cure for all such affections, and am never without it in the house." Mrs. L. E. Herman, 187 Mercer St., Jersey City, writes: "I have always found Ayer's Cherry Pectoral useful in my family." B. T. Johnson, Mt. Savage, Md., writes: "For the speedy cure of sudden Colds, and for the relief of children afflicted with Croup, I have never found anything equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Stickler, Terre Haute, Ind., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured my wife of a severe lung affection, supposed to be Quick Consumption. We now regard the Pectoral as a household necessity." E. M. Breckenridge, Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I am subject to Bronchitis, and wherever I go, am always sure to have a bottle of

with me. It is without a rival for the cure of bronchial affections."

Mary S. Martin of Philadelphia, a member of the Society of Friends, saw William C. Eisenhower beating his horse. She remonstrated, and he swore at her. She had him arrested, and the Justice looked over the statutes until he found an old law against swearing, and he then imposed the fine provided therefor. The fine was 67 cents.

YODER & CURRY, LAND, LOAN & INSURANCE AGENTS,

Correspondence in English and German.

Lockwood, Dade County., Mo.

The lands we have for sale are located in a country that, for a combination of those natural resources which add to the pleasure and comfort of man, cannot be excelled, if equalled, by any other locality on this Continent. We refer to the salubrity and healthfulness of its climate, the productiveness of its soil, the profusion and variety of its agricultural products, and the intelligence, morality and good character of its citizens. Comparing its present condition with its possibilities, this country although no longer on the confines of civilization, is yet in its infancy; and investments made in farms now will, eventually, yield a large percentage of gain in value while the country grows into the magnificent proportions destined for it by the great Architect of its natural resources.

We subjoin a partial list of the farms we have to sell, and we will take pleasure in answering any questions pertaining more particularly to the inducements we have to offer to parties desiring to locate in the great and growing West.

No. 50. 80 acres, good land; all clear; fenced with hedge and barbed wire; orchard and shade trees planted; good well; a house that cost $300 to build; a western barn; six miles from Lockwood and within four miles to coal and timber. Price $2,000.

No. 51. 80 acres: all fenced and broke; good house; small orchard; all fenced in hedge; 4 miles from Lockwood, in a good neighborhood. Price $2,400.

No. 52. 95 acres: all fenced in barbed wire and hedge; 65 acres broke; house 14x24; 35 miles from Kings Point; 7 miles from Lockwood. Price $1,500.

No. 53. 160 acres: all fenced with barbed wire; 65 acres broke; good well; 35 apple trees 3 yrs. old, and other fruit; house and barn; 3 miles from Lockwood. Price $25.00 per acre, on good terms.

No. 55. 320 acres: 2 miles from Lockwood; good frame house 200 apple trees; peach trees and other fruit and forest trees; also a tenant house newly built; barn and other buildings. Price $85. per acre. This tract may be sold in two parts.

No. 60. 40 acres: 20 acres fenced; 15 acres timber; never failing spring of water; good land; on public road; 2 miles from Lockwood. Price $600.

We will change the above list from time to time, but if any time parties desiring land will write to us describing what they want, we will try to supply their wants. Be sure to see this country before locating elsewhere.
